Q1: Read the text carefully and then answer the questions that follow:

Text (A)

People started writing thousands of years ago. At first, they wrote records of local trade. This kind of writing wasn't for entertaining an audience in the way stories and poems are! People told stories and poems for entertainment around the world before writing existed.

Africa has a long history of storytelling. The most famous African stories are about little animals that use their intelligence to survive against bigger animals.

1-When did people start writing and what did they write at first?

2-What was the purpose of telling stories and poems?

3- How could little animals survive against bigger ones?

4-What do the underlined pronouns refer to?

5-Find out a word from the text which is opposite of (Smaller)

Text (B)

These stories were told from person to person before written copies were ever made. Writing was used to tell stories across the Middle East before it was used anywhere else in the world.

Some of the earliest pieces of literature came from the Middle East. These stories travelled around the world because the writers' skills were so impressive. Reading stories from around the world helped writers to develop their skills by learning from each other over the centuries.

Many people believe that reading stories from different times and places is a way of understanding and appreciating the variety that exists between cultures.
