Q1-A: Read the text and answer the following questions:

People have celebrated festivals from the earliest times in history, and many countries love to celebrate nature. Many countries around the world hold flower festivals. Most of these festivals celebrate the flower that represents either the whole country or a particular region. In each country, there are parties, entertainments, family get-togethers and a commemoration of traditions and culture. In Henan Province in China, people celebrate the Luoyang Peony Festival from 15th to 25th April every year. The peony symbolises wealth and nobility in China, but the colourful flower also has a legend attached! It is said that Empress Wu of the Tang Dynasty banished the peony from her city to the city of Luoyang, where it has bloomed abundantly every year since. Certainly, if you go to Luoyang at this time of year, you will see millions of peony plants in Luoyang Peony Gardens. You can also take part in celebrations such as dance competitions and cultural fairs, as well as watch music and drama spectacles. Jordan's national flower is the beautiful black iris, a rare flowering plant that is remarkable because it grows among rocks. It is admired for its unique beauty and strength. It is found mainly in the district of Ajloun, north of Jordan, during February and March.

Q1-B: Read the text and answer the following questions:

Every society and culture has its own customs and traditions. When you travel to another country, you should make sure that you know these unwritten 'rules' so that you don't offend anyone.

If someone gives you a present in India, you mustn't open it in front of the person who has given it to you. You must open it in private. In many countries around the world, you have to take off your shoes before entering someone's home. In Jordan, if you are drinking black coffee with your host, you should show that you have had enough coffee by shaking your cup from side to side. If you would like more coffee, you simply hold out your cup. In the countryside in Brazil, many homes haven't got doorbells. So when you visit someone, you must stand outside and clap your hands. If nobody comes to open the door, you can knock, but you can't go inside until it is opened. If you are waiting to shake the hand of the Queen of England, you have to wait until she puts out her hand first. Accepting invitations can be very confusing. If you are invited to a dinner party which starts at seven o'clock, what time should you arrive? In Turkey, you should arrive exactly on time. In Argentina, you should arrive up to an hour late as arriving on time is considered impolite!

- 1- What does the writer mean by the 'unwritten rules'?
- 2- Is it acceptable to enter a house with your shoes?
.....
- 3- How can you show that you don't need more black coffee in Jordan?
.....
- 4- What should you do when you visit someone in Brazil?
.....
- 5- What time should you arrive to a party that you have invited to in Turkey?
- 6- Find a word in the text which means to move suddenly from side to side or up and down .....
