Q1: Read the text and answer the following questions:

Sherlock Holmes sat at the breakfast table and gave me a walking stick. There was something written on it: "To Mr. James Mortimer, from his friends- 1884." 'Well, Watson, what can you tell me about the owner of the stick?' asked Holmes. 'I think that Mr. Mortimer is an old country doctor. His patients like him, so they gave him this walking stick.' 'Good!' said Holmes. 'Why do you think he's a country doctor?'

'Because this stick is very scratched. A city doctor does not carry such an old stick.' Holmes took the stick from my hands and looked at it. 'Interesting! I think the man is a country doctor, but he is not old. He's a young, pleasant and absent-minded doctor.' 'How did you know that?' 'Elementary, my dear Watson. Only pleasant people get presents, and only absent-minded men forget their sticks.'
