Q1-A: Read the text and answer the following questions:

Jordan is known for its tourist attractions worldwide, especially those related to health tourism. The Dead Sea, which is the lowest point on Earth, is located southwest of the capital city, Amman. It is a delightful piece of scenery with many health benefits.

It is hot in summer and warm in winter. The air is rich in oxygen, which is helpful for people with respiratory and skin diseases. The Dead Sea, which is visited by thousands of tourists from all over the world, is famous for its therapeutic waters.

In fact, the water contains vast amounts of minerals such as magnesium, calcium, potassium and salt that are used to cure skin diseases, headaches and foot pain.

The salt from the Dead Sea is exported to countries all around the world, due to its health benefits. These amounts of salt make it impossible for marine creatures to live in its water, which is why it is called the Dead Sea. There are also special treatment resorts at the Dead Sea. Patients spend weeks finishing their treatment and most of them go back home with amazing results.

Cultural tourism means travelling to a certain country to experience its culture, including its language, history, art and other aspects of culture. Thousands of tourists from around the world visit the Louvre Museum in Paris, France, to see the Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci.

Leonardo da Vinci was born in Italy in 1452 CE. He is regarded as one of the world's greatest artists for being a talented musician, sculptor as well as being a brilliant scientist and inventor. His notebooks were filled with sketches and drawings of many things: the human body, birds in flight, and designs for the different machines that he invented.

When he was fifteen years old, Leonardo began to work for an artist. He learnt how to paint, sculpt and design jewellery. By the age of twenty, Leonardo was a great painter and sculptor. Leonardo began work on many large paintings, but very few of them were finished. He did, however, discover how to use light and dark to create effects. His painting Mona Lisa is a masterpiece of light and dark, and it is probably the most famous portrait in the world today. Leonardo was greatly interested in science and nature, so he examined plants and trees to discover how they grow. He also studied rocks to see how they were formed, and he carried out tests to show what things can affect the wind and the oceans.
